Constructing Good Questions Using a Question Wheel

- Cut out both circles.
- Place smaller circle on top of larger one.
- Connect circles using a brad through the centers.
- Pick a word from each circle.
- Combine them to create a question about what you are learning.